

The Sweet, It Makes Me Wonder

Now that everybodys gone
I am left to wonder why it all went so wrong
Maybe i was born to late
In a time when love so quickly turned to hate
Don't go outside

A lie

Safe here inside

Goodbye

Inside, outside

It's feel so good to be alive

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why"

Why

Shield my face against the rain

I can never see the world i knew again

By playing god they went too far

But why have i been left alone to bare the scar

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why"

Why

Why

Why

Don't go outside

A lie

Safe is inside

Goodbye

Indside outside

It's feel so good to be alive

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why why"

And it makes me wonder

"Why why"

Why
