

The Tea Party, All My Charms

Walking alone,
on a lonely Friday night I'm thinking about you baby.
I know my timing ain't right.
Through all the stages that,
I put you through,
I'm so sorry baby,
What else could I do?
See I've tried to let you go,
I've tried so hard to forget
My thought still won't subside.
I guess I'm just losing my mind.

All my kisses and all my charms,
Couldn't put you back baby in my arms.
I guess it's over yeah.

All my kisses and all my charms,
Couldn't put you back in my arms.

Been through some bad times but,
I'm sure we've seen some good, hey baby.
Think about it, yeah, yeah.
I knew you only would.
Through all the stages,
that I've put you through,
I'm so sorry baby,
What else could I do.
See I've tried to let you go,
I've tried so hard to forget
My thought still won't subside.
I guess I'm just losing my mind.

All my kisses and all my charms,
Couldn't put you back baby in my arms.
Hey baby think about that.

Mmm all my kisses and all my charms,
Couldn't put you back, couldn't put you back, baby.

I've tried so many many times,
But my thoughts still don't react.
Now baby, think about that,
I know exactly where I'm at.
I tried to make you see,
But you keep on pushing me away.
Baby think about it now.
Cause I'm not that strong,
I'll keep holding on.

See I've tried to let you go,
I've tried so hard to forget and my thought still won't subside.
I guess I'm just losing my mind.

All my kisses and all my charms,
Couldn't put you back baby in my arms.
I guess it's over.

All my kisses and all my charms,
Couldn't put you back in my arms,
hey baby.
