

The Thrills, Old Friends, New Lovers

Everybody's talking crazy
This town you're hanging up on me,
Baby blue.

Its such a shame when old friends fall out,
Its such a shame when old friends fall out,
Its such a shame when old friends fall out,
Over new lovers. (Well my oh my oh my)

Broken friendships surely beckon
Why she asked me?
All because of you,
Baby blue.

Its such a shame when old friends fall out,
Its such a shame when old friends fall out,
Its such a shame when old friends fall out,
Over new lovers. (Well my oh my oh my)

Its such a shame when old friends fall out,
Its such a shame when old friends fall out,
Its such a shame when old friends fall out,
Over new lovers. (Well my oh my oh my)
