

The Thrillseekers, The last time (ft. Fisher)

You touched me
You answered
You loved me
No one on earth could ever make me
Make me feel
So loved, so complete
You have your own way
The only answer to every reason
That I can dream of
The one solution to every problem
That makes me crazy
It turns me inside out
The last time we touched, the last time you held me
I was a soul in your hand
The last time we touched, the last time you held me
My life had only begun
The last time we missed, and I could see you clearly
My eyes were not opened up
The last time we missed, the last time I held you
I could see you clearly
Your sky is mine, I walk beneath it
Not alone
When I call your name
You always answer
And every time I begin to doubt you
You give me more love
No hesitation
You come to me when my heart is beating
So hard I cannot breathe
You give me all I need
And this is all I need
The last time we touched, the last time you held me
My eyes were not opened up
The last time we missed, the last time I held you
I could see you clearly
You touched me
I feel you in my arms
The last time we touched, the last time you held me
I was a soul in your hand
The last time we touched, my heart could see you clearly
