

The Tragically Hip, Forest Edge

i'm a rock and roller, wary of windfall staying at the get out now hotel and i want it all the forest edge, in the deepest darkest depths on the forest edge, with a blind, benign absentmindedness you picked up the phone and heard what sounded like a really big car revving way too hot outside, you said, "tell me where you are?"

forest edge, for christ sakes it's darkness on the edge of town, a sweet and mean, unassailing sound a dream, dream, springsteen scene, naturally a dream, dream, torn up in dream, naturally you detected me shaking, even when i wasn't shaking like all great relationships, this one started with an apology forest edge, in the deepest darkest depths on the forest edge, with a kind, sublime absentmindedness a dream, dream, guitar dream, naturally a dream, dream, reoccurring dream, naturally a dream, dream, springsteen scene a dream, dream, guitar dream
