

The Tragically Hip, One Night In Copenhagen

when the drugs hit you, tingly begins conviction plus tone equals hope under the threat of separation the nadir's fluorescent, the shriek of a gull suspended in air the sound of the sea, anywhere, anywhere when the drugs quit you, as loyal as a fruit fly you'll mutter to yourself "you talentless fuck, good fucking luck, good fucking luck" a delicatessen, shriek of a horn suspended in air the sound of the town, anywhere, anywhere it quits you in situ and here it begins quits you at a payphone in the snow one night in copenhagen

and you know the nadir's fluorescent, the shriek of a gull suspended in air the sound of the town, anywhere, anywhere, anywhere
