

The Tragically Hip, Radio Show holding in smoke til your father passes my perspectives are broadened cuz my senses are dulled phoning in to the radio show people stop to watch construction when it has something to offer

when it has nothing to offer the structure's good and the night is beautiful the connection is clear now, the volume's down low i'm phoning in to the radio show people stop to watch the election

people stop to watch the triumph

when you stop caring 'bout what's in store it's strange how people stop caring so much about you anymore

the flaming vehicle crashed through the guard rail
the flaming vehicle crashed through the guard rail i can give you the details if you need to know

people stop watching instructions when they have something to offer
people stop watching instructions

it's strange when people stop caring so much about you anymore as long as we
as long as we -e -e
as long as we...
