

The Transplants, Apocalypse Now

"Apocalypse Now"

Album: Hounded Cities

[Tim]

I'm gonna be straight with you this is the end of the world
You either wake up or you don't

Apocalypse Now

[Chorus]

Apocalypse Now! Apocalypse Now! Apocalypse Now!

Apocalypse Now! Apocalypse Now! Apocalypse Now!

[Tim]

Air Force Bomber, come with the quickness

Chemical Warfare, a bucket of Sickness

Annihilation, written thesis

Bomb and Leashes, Shrapnel pieces

Political Dynasty, vigorous lies

Multi-dead, on the rise

Realize - the Demise

It's all over, No surprise

[Chorus]

[Rob]

Chilling with pipe bombs, fatherless sons

Ain't no saving private Ryan but I've taken his guns cause there's a war outside and it's far from being done

I only speak for myself I know I'm not the only one fuckers got us with the planes, set us back on 9/11

families endure the pain, got a twisted view of heaven

Need a rabbi or a Reverend I just follow the ghost

I keep an extra 4 pounds right up under my coat

[Chorus]

[Tim]

Cruise missiles are soaring

Helicopters are whirling

Kalashnikovs are firing

Bomb shelters are siren

Soldiers are crawling

Politicians stalling

Insurgents prowling

Casualties are rising

[Rob]

Life is a nightmare, I'm dreaming of death

Nothing else is promised, no, I won't hold my breath

Still talking to death, still choking the best

Still don't know when no one can be trusted only once for the left

Stepping out I'm in the dark, you wanna keep me in the cold

Ripping out ain't that your heart I'm-a causing to explode

Cause you're screwing money, law, mother fucker '95

You don't know me, keep on moving, I'm just trying to stay alive

[Chorus]
