

The Twilight Singers, Twilight

when darkness falls
on Summer's end
so in your absence
i shall begin
when Darkness falls the race iz done and Love lives not
when Hope is gone
goodbye, sufer
everything's gonna be alright...
the longest night of every year i spent beside you, baby do you remember anything about me? i was the one when Hope was gone who took too long to sing this song
everything's gonna be alright...
when darkness falls
on Summer's end
so in your absence
i shall begin
the race iz through everything's gonna be alright . . .
