

The Twins, Playing With Fire

I'm going where I please - And coming to my senses
I don't fall to my knees - At the fences.

Taking ? Life in ? Laughing
And playing with Fire
Lost in ? Loving ? Laughing
And playing with Fire.

I'm taking every chance - And giving up at nothing
And altering my stance - Without warning.

We're living for a lifetime
And playing with Fire
We're living on the line
And playing with Fire.

I'm living for today - And dying to be with her
I never beg or pray - Except to differ.

Taking ? Life in ? Laughing
And playing with Fire
Lost in ? Loving ? Laughing
And playing with Fire.

We're living for a lifetime
And playing with Fire
We're living on the line
And playing with Fire.
