

The Union Underground, Until You Crack

How long? How long?
How long? How long?
How long? How long?
How long? How long?

Kiss your mother now
I think you should
Kick you while your down
You knew I would
So I'm wearing thin
Same old trip again
Face down, Heroin
Same old trip again

I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
Until you crack
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
Until you crack

Drag your sister down
You never learn
Teach your brother how
And watch him burn
So I'm wearing thin
Same old trip again
Face down, Heroin
Same old trip again
Same old trip again

I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
Until you crack
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
Until you crack

I feel you coming
I see you near from the loneliness
You shoot the fun
I feel your black hollow consciousness
I've turned you on to what they call the fucking heaven sent
I kiss you all
The feeble and the damage done

Your paranoia, is starting to boil
The feeling is so that I'm sickened I'm breaking I
Your paranoia, is starting to boil
My bleeding is for you, so that I'm dead

I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
Until you crack
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
Until you crack

I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
Until you crack
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
I said how long (How long?)
Until you crack
