

The Veils, A Birthday Present

Everybody thinks it's something real
Right until the devil drinks it

O li O

Everything's fate and spinning wheels
Everybody wants their princes
No sense in waiting for a swift completion to come
That invitation is all I'm waiting on
The tedious thoughts of the head of state
Are seldom ever worth revealing

O li O

Indelible stains on the human race
You hideous fakes and murderers!
No sense in waiting for a swift completion to come
That invitation is all I'm waiting on
Everybody thinks the end is near
How am I to tell the difference?

O li O

Wish everybody a happy new year
There are varying results predicted
No sense in waiting for a swift completion to come
That invitation is all I'm waiting on
