

The Veronicas, Hook Me Up

I'm tired of my life
I feel so in between
I'm sick of all my friends, girls can be so mean
I feel like throwin' out everything I wear I'm startin' over new
'Cause I'm not even there

Sometimes
I wanna get away some place
But I don't wanna stay too long
Sometimes
I wanna brand new day
Try to fit in where I don't belong

Hook, hook me up
I wanna feel the rain in my hair
Hook, hook me up
Where should we go I don't even care

Anywhere is good enough
Hook me up
Hook me up

I like the lights turned out the sound of closing doors
I'm not like other girls who always felt so sure
Of everything they are
Of what they're gonna be Sometimes I'm just a girl who's stuck inside of me

Sometimes I wanna disappear some place
but I don't wanna stay too long
Sometimes
I'm feelin' so alone
Tryin' to fit in where I don't belong

Hook, hook me up
I wanna feel the rain in my hair
Hook, hook me up
Where should we go I don't even care

Anywhere is good enough
Hook me up
Hook me up

Anywhere is good enough
Hook me up

Not gonna crash and burn
I'm gonna find a way
Nothin' left to say

Hook, hook me up
I wanna feel the rain in my hair
Hook, hook me up
Where should we go I don't even care

Hook, hook me up
I wanna feel the rain in my hair
Hook, hook me up
Where should we go I don't even care

Anywhere is good enough

Hook me up
Hook me up
hook me up