

The Verve, Change My Life

I should have told you,
But I'm never here,
Get up, I breathe,
I'm gone, without a fear.
Some days I fly to the skies,
But they tell me you lie,
Gaze in those deep blue eyes,
And they say here you are.
I do want to see those pretty eyes shine,
We should maybe go out,
Baby, this will change my life.
I should have told you,
But my days are long,
Get up at two and put the tele,
I look run down,
This is so confusing,
You lift me up to the top,
Then you say here we are.
I do want to see those pretty eyes shine,
We should maybe go out,
Baby, this will change my life.
This will change my life.
'Cos I, do want to see those big eyes shine,
Wish we could do out,
This will change my life,
Change this life.
