The Verve Pipe, Clean Break

i think you need some assistance to keep yourself at a distance it's harder when she's beautiful it's easy when she's waking next to you if you're gonna make a break, make a clean break if you're gonna make a break, break clean if you're gonna make a break, make a clean break if you're gonna make a break, make a clean break

i can see the tables turning homefires lit, your house is burning it's harder in the evening but it's easy in the early afternoon

sure there is an easy out by staying in for one more session you justify it all by seeing her in moderation no opportunity for her to start a new relation you help yourself because you're sensing obligation

i think it's great the way you handle both ends of a burning candle it's harder when she's easy but it's easy when she's just as hard on you
