

The Vibrators, Letting You Go

(Verse 1:)

If I thought for a minute you'd change your mind,
I'd be down on the very next train.
But I heard from a few of our mutual friends,
That you don't wanna see me again.

(Verse 2:)

Only you know the reasons why I can't cope,
With your clothes and your records all gone.
Went off with the keys, never once did you phone.
Left me lost and alone for so long.

(Mid. 8:)

Just what things you've been saying,
What games you've been playin',
Who with girl I'd rather not know.
Took all I gave and threw it back in my face,
Now I'm forced into letting you go.

(Verse 3:)

Though I hoped for a while you'd call my bluff,
That you'd be back lying beside me.
For myself mother comfort was never enough,
Now it' seems like it's fait accomplie.

(Mid. 8.2:)

I'll know better next time around,
Should've guessed from the very start.
I waas oblivious to what's going down,
I've been left with a broken heart. (Oh Yeah -)

(Solo)

(Mid. 8.1:)

Just where things you've been staying,
What games you've been playin',
Who with girl I'd rather not know.
Took all I gave and threw it back in my face,
Now I'm forced into letting you go.

(Repeat Verse 1)

(Outro:) Why d'ya have to let me down now baby,
(repeat 'til end)
