

The Vines, Hot Leather

Wherever you are
Wherever you start
Feels good and alive
When I'm floating to ground
All your doing is killing time yeah
And all I'm doing is killing mine yeah

I'm laying, in the sun
Cause I'm searching for one
Feels good and alive
When I'm floating to mine

All your doing is killing time yeah
And all I'm doing is fucking mine yeah

But it feels alright
I don't care
If you stay till night
I don't care
