

The W's, Nothing

The sun has long been gone
The moon has found it's place
The feelings left inside
Are feelings left to hide
And I say to you now
I've lost sight of what's to see
I feel no more, the will is gone
I have nothing.

Take me, take me as I am
I feel the walls surrounding me
And I am weak so help me now

Help me, help me in this world
This world, kills me slowly

Take me, take me as I am
Clear the mess inside of me
So I can see again

Help me, help me in this world
This world is killing me
Please don't let me be
Take me as I am

The questions slowly build the walls that block my path
I wonder where you've gone
I wonder if I'll last

And I say to you now
I cannot go on alone
Help me now, I've lost me way
I have nothing

Take me, take me as I am
I feel the walls surrounding me
And I am weak so help me now

Help me, help me in this world
This world, kills me slowly

Take me, take me as I am
Clear the mess inside of me
So I can see again

Help me, help me in this world
This world is killing me
Please don't let me be
Take me as I am
