

The Waterboys, The Thrill Is Gone

I'm too tired to deceive you we can't pretend there's nothing wrong Who'll be the first to say it?
that the thrill is gone
And we never get it back...

When we talk of old acquaintance and speak like two strangers all day long The only four words that I hear are "the thrill is gone";
And we never get it back...

When evening falls magenta and goodnight hangs on and on I won't need to go to sleep and dream to tell me
that the thrill is gone
And we never get it back...
