

The Wombats, We Don't Mean That Much

Well, I think you're crazy,
The way you turn,
When all our friends are there.

And you're roosting,
Cos you know when we fight,
I toss and turn at night.

And we don't mean that much,
Cos you dont smile at me that much,
Yeh we don't mean that much,
But i dont need much to make me happy.

We be seventeen, love,
Have a house on the seaside,
I wear my open toe sandals day and night.

Drinking out rainbow,
Waiting from orders from above,
Hey babe, this is love.

Yeh, we don't mean that much,
Cos you dont smile at me that much,
Yeh we don't mean that much,
But I dont need much to make me happy.

Yeh, we don't mean that much,
Cos you dont smile at me that much,
And we don't mean that much,
But I dont need much to make me happy.
