

Thea Gilmore, Crazy Love

I can hear your heart beat for a thousand miles
And the heavens open every time you smile
And when I come to you that's where I belong
Yet I'm running to you like a river's song

You give me love, love, love, love, crazy love
You give me love, love, love, love, crazy love

You've got a fine sense of humour when I'm feeling low down
And when I come to you when the sun goes down
You take away my trouble, take away my grief
Take away my heartache in the night like a thief

You give me love, love, love, love, crazy love
You give me love, love, love, love, crazy love

Yeah, I need you in the daytime
Yeah, I need you in the night
Yeah, I want to throw my arms around you
And kiss you, hug you, kiss you, hug you tight

And when I'm returning from so far away
You give me some sweet lovin' brighten up my day
Yeah, it made me righteous, yeah it made me whole
Yeah, it made me mellow down to my soul

You give me love, love, love, love, crazy love
You give me love, love, love, love, crazy love
You give me love, love, love, love, crazy love
You give me love, love, love, love, crazy love
