

thekayetan, miss u

it's not a secret had a hard time naming what is in me but it's a feeling crashing through my bones for you to keep it i know i'm not always open about what's going on in my mind trying to learn all the suitable words there's just one thing u should know, i miss u i miss u, i miss u

i miss u, i miss u

please don't fall for anyone else i've waited for you for so long don't know what future will look like for us but please keep in mind that i do got pretty bruised wasn't spared on heartbrakes, was the one to lose made some mistakes

But still begging for a second chance i know i have my own freaky ways just wanna see u again wish i could be all this time by your side please don't forget that i do, i miss u

i miss u, i miss u
i miss u, i miss u

please don't fall for anyone else
how will i bear it again i know i'm not making it easy for us please understand that i do, i miss u

i miss u, i miss u
i miss u, i miss u
