

Therapy?, Other People's Misery

I had a love of life
I had a stable mind
There's something wrong with me
One fix, a quick release

For you, for you, for you
Other people's misery

I had some confidence
I had some kind of grace
But it's caught up with me
One fix, a quick release

For you, for you, for you
Other people's misery

I had a love of life
I had a stable mind
I had a love of life
I had a stable mind
I had a love of life
I had a stable mind
I had a love of life
I had a stable mind

For you, for you, for you
For you, for you, for you
Other people's misery

Other people's misery

Sister

Hey, sister, what am I in for?
What is this place? who are these people?
Miles of wires, fluorescent light, crimson faces, familiar hatred
Miles of wires, fluorescent light, crimson faces, knuckle necklace

Sister, I'm lost and I'm taking you with me
Wherever I go, yeah, I'm taking you with me
'Cause, sister, I'm lost

And it's raining like I've never seen
Thick, red, hot, in pregnant drops, I scratch my skin
I can't sleep, I'm barely awake, I'm suffocating, an open space
I can't sleep, I'm barely awake, I'm suffocating, I'm suffocating

Sister, I'm lost and I'm taking you with me
Wherever I go, yeah, I'm taking you with me
'Cause, sister, I'm lost, sister, I'm lost, sister, I'm lost, sister, I'm lost

Do not, do not, do not, do not, do not, do, do, do, do, do
Do not, do not, do not, do not, do not, do, do, do, do, do

And I can't sit still, and I can't relax
It's like trying to find my way out of someone else's nightmare
Working for the same old people, waiting for the same old man
Working for the same old people, waiting for the same old man

Sister, I'm lost and I'm taking you with me
Wherever I go, yeah, I'm taking you with me
My sister, I'm lost and I'm taking you with me
Wherever I go, yeah, I'm taking you with me
'Cause, sister, I'm lost

Sister, I'm lost, sister, I'm lost, sister, I'm lost, sister, I'm lost

Lost afternoons, measuring time in spoons
