

Therapy?, Sprung

Ive reached that point again
Theres decisions to be made
Prioritise and organise
Foundations for the future

Well Ive seen it all before
Feels like a previous life
I got it wrong back then
This time Ive got to get it right

They didnt believe me then
They wont believe me now
They wont believe me
Anyhow

A fearless, reckless life
Can have consequences
But still Id rather feel something
Id rather take my chances

They didnt believe me then
They wont believe me now
They wont believe me
Anyhow

They didnt believe me then
They wont believe me now
Youre on your own
Dont take it lying down

Dont take it lying down
Dont take it lying down
Dont take it lying down

Dont take it lying down
Dont take it lying down
Dont take it lying down

They didnt believe me then
They wont believe me now
They wont believe me
Anyhow

They didnt believe me then
They wont believe me now
Youre on your own
Dont take it lying down
