

Therapy?, Tramline

I'm getting swallowed up in all of this
And the last thing I need is some rock star bullshit

(See you later)
(Yeah, I'll be there in about half an hour)
(See ya)

I'm getting swallowed up in all of this
And the last thing I need is some rock star bullshit

(When you think about it)
(This is my army, my soulless army and it's always next to the line, and it's [..])

(This is my army)
Rock star bullshit

(It means a lot)
(Thanks very much)

I'm getting caught up in all of this
And the last thing I need is some rock star bullshit

I'm getting swallowed up in all of this
And the last thing I need is some rock star bullshit
