

Therion, Path to Arcady

When I recall your name, I recall the time
When Hermes (Trismegist) and Orpheus wrote down the rhyme
When I recall your name...
When I recall your name...
Follow the emerald of eternity
Follow the path of Thor, and a path a Arcady
When I recall your name...
When I recall your name...
When I recall your name, I recall the time
When the philisophers where striving for (the) sublime
When I recall your name...
When I recall your name...
If you recall the name, you recall the sight
Of the perennial and of eternal light
When I recall your name...
When I recall your name...
