

Thievery Corporation, The Mirror Conspiracy

What I did here
Is in the past
How could we see
We'd never last
And time will tell
And you're all lies
And now the truth
Is your demise
All my heart
All of your tears
Our whole world
Is smoke and mirrors
All my heart
All of your tears
Our whole world
Is smoke and mirrors
You're here yourself
In wandered eyes
But now I've seen
Through your disguise
From where I stand
A lovely view
Your world unwinds
You come unglued
All my heart
All of your tears
Our whole world
Is smoke and mirrors
All my heart
All of your tears
Our whole world
Is smoke and mirrors
