

Third Eye Blind, 10 Days Late

Click your heels, feel you come for me
Care free, she's got something big to tell me
At the ocean, talk back at the ocean
There's no simple way to let you know
Funny how she always cried out daddy
I got a big surprise, she said?
I'm in trouble now and it cannot wait
She's ten days late
Boy your life got complicated
Well I can't wait, to see this through
She's ten days late, ten days late
Low ride bicycles go cruising by
I laugh, I don't even know why
Talk back at the ocean
Consequence and ozone catch a glow
Oh no baby, oh, no, no
Give me a minute now to figure out my state
Oh, I know she's ten days late
And I don't know where to take it
But it's still great knowing you
She's ten days late, ten days late
Time has come for you to chose
Baby daddy keep your boo
Many blessings come to you
Baby daddy keep your boo
Baby daddy keep your boo
Baby daddy keep your boo
Your eyes look to me for what to do
I can't lie, uh, uh, I don't know
At the ocean and, talk back at the ocean
No ones laughing now what do I say
You walk away, wait, no, no don't go
At the ocean and, talk back at the ocean
Give me a minute now to figure out my state
She's ten days late
And I'm never gonna fade it
I guess I'll always be knowing you
Knowing you, knowing you
Crawl up the bedpost
