

This Providence, Twisted System sorry im just tired, you said i made a scene and you replied sorry that im tired, but can i just see you smile? what was going through my head?

as we laid on the phone in our beds? you always felt like you were wrong sorry youre tired because ive been keeping you up half the night and bathing in your tears ive been oh so scared to lose you and holding on too tight while ive been spoon-fed my fears if only i could love the way you do you forgive me in a heartbeat of this heart that beats for you well tomorrows a new day and i cant wait to prove myself to you ill prove myself to you
