I woke up whit a feeling I just cold not take
I woke up whit a feeling I just cold not take taken out whit the trash swimming through the gutter

swimming through the gutter
swallowed up swallowed up by the city humans the size of rats opportunity cracks opportunity stutters
it only takes a minute
and it takes it
and it takes it
and it takes it

I woke up whit a feeling I just cold not take
I woke up whit a feeling I just cold not take
I woke up whit a feeling I just cold not take walking in high heels

I woke up whit a feeling I just cold not take breaking in your high heels
I woke up whit a feeling I just cold not take trying hard to leave
I woke up whit a feeling I just cold not take
