

Thomas Dybdahl, Honey

Funny how things work out
We all have reason to sometimes die
When it takes a lifetime to really work things out
Ohh honey
You're the light when darkness takes me
You're the good when evil breaks me
You're the love that won't forsake me
Money is always a fight
Cause it takes a lifetime to really get it right
But in the i main time i spend the night
ooh honey
You're the light when darkness takes me
You're the good when evil breaks me
You're the love that won't forsake me
