

Three Days Grace, I Am The Weapon

Who would I be if I never met
A teacher, priest, or a prophet?
What do I need, tell me what does it mean
Am I living or dying the dream?

Youth is broken
Half of it was stolen
By a world I can't unsee
Youth is broken
Half of it was stolen
Look what you've done to me

I was a target
I was the mission
You had the power
The ammunition

Now I'm the message
This is a lesson
Here in the present
I am the weapon

Now I'm the message
This is a lesson
Here in the present
I am the weapon

Your concept of love
And your hunger for war
Tell me which one should I die for Cause I am the product
Of how I was brought up
The cycle spins out of control

Youth is broken
Half of it was stolen
By a world I can't unsee
Youth is broken
Half of it was stolen
Look what you've done to me

I was a target
I was the mission
You had the power
The ammunition

Now I'm the message
This is a lesson
Here in the present
I am the weapon

Now I'm the message
This is a lesson
Here in the present
I am the weapon

Am I living or dying the dream?

Youth is broken
Half of it was stolen
By a world I can't unsee
Youth is broken
Half of it was stolen

I was a target
I was the mission
You had the power
The ammunition

Now I'm the message
