

Throw The Fight, Vital Signs

there was a look in your eyes when you sat me down that rainy night and you said: don't worry, everything will be alright but time is really running out nothing I can do without feel your beating heart slow down I wrapped you in my arms
and gave a kiss goodbye
our love will never die tonight I whisper in your ear
just let go don't be scared
our love will never die tonight it was the time of the year when the leaves fall down and the skies are clear and I knew that this was gonna be our last goodbye the beating of your broken heart I can think you're giving up I'll watch you die another time I wrapped you in my arms
our love will never die tonight
I whisper in your ear
your hands are growing, growing weak your lips so cracked and blue your hair so (hair so)
thin and frail it's like you're dead inside I wrapped you in my arms
and gave a kiss goodbye
I whisper in your ear
