Thumb, Exposure

Gotta know the answer, gotta know the truth, gotta have a feeling when I look at you. Cause I know my reasons and I know the facts, I try to be wide open so I can fight back.
What you see in me never makes me sad, what I see in you only makes me mad !
Feel me as I expose myself and all I know... Feel me as I expose myself as I explode...
Gotta show emotions,gotta leave your shell, gotta find solutions deep inside yourself, 'cause you'll f you can fight back.
What you see in me never makes me sad, what I see in you never makes me mad!
Don't you know, that there's a time and there's a space for everyone.
See me as I explode!!!
