

Thumb, Victim Of Your Lies

Go get a grip, or you'll slip, 'cause your life is a trip and you will fall until you... Go and awake to escape

You're just a victim of your lies...go tell another one of your lies!
You're just a victim of your lies!

Look at the fruit of your labour and do me a favour, no more fucking up big time, maybe that's safer
What's it all good for, you always stood for...truth and honesty...no more. Now you're all lying, I guess

You're just a victim of your lies...go tell another one of your lies!
You're just a victim of your lies!

hit! Come on, hit!
