

Tiamat, Amanes

I...

I deliver myself to you
Lucifer, my father, you're my light
And my way out of the dark
I wanna set the skies on fire
And watch the angels as they fall into the sun

Why have you forsaken me?
Why have you betrayed me?
Why did you abandon me?
Why did you leave me?

Father
Can you forgive me for what I've done?
I never meant to hurt you
But I'm not your son
Now the time has come for me
And I must leave
My wings are heavy
And my journey has begun...
