

Tiamat, The Temple Of The Crescent Moon

It's been a long time, but we are here again
It's been five long years of thunder, lightning and rain

So cold, so hard without you
But tonight, we're coming through...

Of the temple of the crescent moon
It's calling you tonight
Of the temple of the crescent moon
It's calling you tonight
Where the scarlet lights your lies with all my fire
The temple of the crescent moon comes alive in the night

It's been a long time, but we are back again
For another five years of thunder, lightning and rain
And now of our hurling world is done
And the fights have been fought and won

Of the temple of the crescent moon
It's calling you tonight
Of the temple of the crescent moon
It's calling you tonight
Where the scarlet lights your lies with all my fire
The temple of the crescent moon comes alive in the night

The temple of the crescent moon comes alive in the night
The temple of the crescent

Of the temple of the crescent moon
It's calling you tonight
Of the temple of the crescent moon
It's calling you tonight
Where the scarlet lights your lies with all my fire
The temple of the crescent moon comes alive in the night

The temple of the crescent moon comes alive in the night
