

Tidfall, Nucleus

Plead me guilty and I will plead you darkness
Alloy, to where from you came,
The feet of the icon is the feet that bears grief
And the hands held out is the hands of wrath.

As there is a moment for sanity, so there is a moment for madness.

Nucleus/Nucleus/Nucleus

Let your engine be darkness and the dark your mechanical light
For so long
The next of kin is lying within you, die eagerly
To be strong

Nucleus/Nucleus/Nucleus

Still standing waiting.
With the worlds gun to your head
I'm the trigger to relieve you
Don't hesitate, be dead!

The core of existence
Ressurrection baby, is me
Blessed be yourself by your side
Ressurrection is you
To the coming of our days
