

Tiefighter, Everything

And I could tell the world,
But I dont think that theyd understand
How seven crazy kids
Traded all they had for a tour van
And made their way across the country,
Leaving everything behind
And I dont think that they would understand
And I could tell the world
And only hope that theyd agree
That theres more to this than everything
That theyve taught you to believe
This is all we wanted
But they gave us so much more...
A home 3,000 miles away from home
Yeah!
Oh!
