

Tiffany Evans, There's A Winner In You I Am Cha

It's only me
I've come to see you
And I know
What you have been through
I will be your friend
Lean on me for now
But to pull you back up
Somehow
I'll have no more of this moping around
I'm tired of you putting yourself down
But in spite of all you've been through
I still believe
There's a winner in you
Sometimes you can see it
From the tip of your mind
And can't focus at all times
If the wind touch you to another
Before you discover
There's a winner
There's a hero
There's a lover too
Somewhere
There's a winner in you
I'll have no more of this moping around
I'm tired of you putting yourself down
But in spite of all you've been through
I still believe
There's a winner in you
There's a winner
There's a hero
There's a lover too
Somewhere
There's a winner in you
There's a winner
There's a hero
There's a lover too
Somewhere
There's a winner in you
