

Tim Finn, I Found It

In the end it all depends on you,
No matter what you're going through,
There's always going to be more than one point of view.

Yes I did, I finally found it,
Kept it hidden from myself for so long,
I finally found it, yes I did.

Yes I did, I finally found it,
Kept it hidden from myself for so long,
I finally found it, yes I did.

Yes I did, I finally found it,
Kept it hidden from myself for so long,
I finally found it, yes I did.

For every wave upon the beach,
I want to ride a wave with you,
For every starfish in the sea,
I want to swim away.

Yes I did, I finally found it,
Been searching for so long, but I've finally found it now,
And I'm never gonna lose it,
Yes I did.

I finally found it.
