Tim McGraw, Something Like That (A Heart Don'

It was Labour day weekend, I was seventeen. I Bought a Coke and some gasoline, and I drove out to the County Fair, When I saw her for the first time, She was standing there in the ticket line. And It all started right then and there. Oh a sailor's sky made a perfect sunset, and that's a day I'll never forget. I had a barbeque stain on my white tee-shirt, And she was killin' me in that miniskirt. Skippin' rocks on the river by the Railroad tracks. She had a suntan line and red lipstick. I worked so hard for that first kiss, And a heart don't forget, something like that. It was Five years later, on a Southbound plane. I was headin' down to New Orleans, To meet some friends of mine for Mardi Gras, When I heard a voice from the past, Comin' from a few rows back. And when i looked i couldn't believe just what i saw She said I bet you don't remember me, And I said Only every other memory. I had a barbeque stain on my white tee-shirt, And you were killin' me in that miniskirt. Skippin' rocks on the river by the railroad tracks. You had a suntan line and red lipstick, I worked so hard for that first kiss. And a heart don't forget, something like that. Like an Old photograph, Time can make a feeling fade... But the memory of the first love, Never fades away. I had a barbecue stain on my white tee shirt She was killin' me in that miniskirt Skippin' rocks on the river by the railroad tracks She had a suntan line and red lipstick I worked so hard for that first kiss A heart dont forget, no a heart dont forget I said a heart dont forget something like that Oh, not something like that
