Tim McGraw, The Ride

I was thumbin' my way from Montgomery had my guitar on my back When a stranger pulled up beside me in an antique Cadillac. Well, he was dressed like 1950, half drunk and hallow eyed Said: 'It's a long walk to Nashville, would you like a ride, son'. Well, I climbed up in the front seat, and he turned on the radio and them sad old songs comin' outta them speakers was solid country gold. Then I noticed the stranger was ghost white pale when he asked me for a light. And knew there was somethin' strange about this ride.

[Chorus:]

He said: Drifter can you make folks cry when you play and sang. Have you paid your dues, can you moan the blues Can you bend them guitar strangs. He said: Boy, can you make folks feel what you feel inside,

Cause if your big star bound let me warn you its a long hard ride.

Well, he cried just south of Nashville, and he turned that car around. he said: [spoken] this is where you get off, boy cause I'm going back to Alabam'. Well, I climbed out of that Cadillac and I said Mister, many thanks. he said you don't have to call me mister, Mister.

The whole world calls me Hank.

[Chorus]
