

Tina Arena, Now I Can Dance

So I hope this finds you well
Sun is shining down eastern valley ways
There's some news I need to tell you
Give my Mother a kiss
Tell her I'm ok

I recall her words
"If it's too easy, It never lasts"
I have compromised
Now Im finally free of the past

Now I can dance
Clouds have all disappeared
Freedom
I hold so dear
Cause nobody knows me here
Though I can only imagine the sadness
In your eyes
Please understand
Now I can dance

All alone the other night
I came to realise we'd be friends for life
It was always meant to be
For some people the heavens can get it so right

Like an angel you see
You have graciously offered a hand
You'd be so proud of me
Now I'm finally taking a stand

Now I can dance
Clouds have all disappeared
Freedom
I hope so dear
Cause nobody knows me here
Though I can only imagine the sadness
In your eyes
Please understand
Now I can dance
Now I can dance

Now I can dance
Clouds have all disappeared
Freedom
I hope so dear
Cause nobody knows me here
Though I can only imagine the sadness
In you eyes
Please understand
Now I can dance

Though I can only imagine the sadness
In your eyes
Please understand
Now I can dance

So I hope this finds you well
Sun is shining down eastern valley ways

So good
Be free
Can dance and laugh and just be me
So good

Be free
The clouds above have disappeared
