

Tina Charles, Baby Don't You Know Anymore

Oh baby dont you know anymore
Baby, dont you know anymore
I look in your eyes and I get a surprise
I see you dont know anymore
Nothing that you do is for sure
Could it be that you dont love me
Nothing I do seems to matter to you
And nothing you say anymore
Gives me the feeling for sure
That you still wanna love me
Oh baby, dont you know anymore
Baby, dont you know anymore
Baby, what goes on
When the door is closed behind you
Oh baby, what goes on in your mind
Baby, what goes on in your mind
Baby, dont you know anymore
What youre hoping to find
How can a day take you so far away
Tomorrow I could be without you
Give me a sign that you wanna be mine
Cause I doubt you
And where do you go theres no ego
And what do you do when Im gone
Maybe youll find that youre wrong
And you still wanna love me
Repeat
Repeat
