Tina Turner, I Idolize You

If you want some loving, That I can give to you. And if you want some hugging, Said I can hug some, too.

All I want, baby, now Is some thought of you

And just a little of your affection, You know, will see me through.

'cause you know that you are my man, And I want you to forever be mine. I idolize you (yes, she idolize you)
