

Tindersticks, Fast One

Some kind of ????? has been hollowed out inside me
Don't know what I became
Or what I've left behind
See I don't remember when
Something plain ????? girl brought me back here again
Started round her house tonight
I could give her a call
Stumbled over the curbside on the way to her door
And I squandered her love
It's the biggest kick I ever got
Now I squandered her love
Nothing else hits the spot
Everybody's perfect and yet everybody's a ?????
Everybody's got pictures that they can't contain
I squandered your love
It hangs there in my mind
It's an ugly thing I can't leave behind
