

Tinfed, Way Thru

you're so deaf and all those words i say go right thru you all the stars in my sky shine only for the blind when it pounds
it is deafening
to all t hat surrounds me so anxious can't even wait til we can begin i'd love for you to pick me up on your way thru if you're gonna pass by i'll wait up for you in a space out of place it's the same old story it'd take more than any of you to corrupt my pace obvious but i know that this won't take very long from NY to SF

from the tide to the moon

CHORUS

i am watchful now i could break your will somehow there's not need to panic now at all if you were to come around we could literally surround i'm still waiting here

CHORUS til end.....
