

Tingsek, World of its own

Ohh how I love to be around
this particular place I found.
No stress at all would waste our time.
Nobody's letting anybody down.
It's a world of its own in here.
We get to do what we decide to.

Ohh how I love to be around
this particular place I found so full of life and possibly the most positive fields of energy.
It's a world of its own in here.
We get to love each other deeply.

Just a couple of years ago
I hooked up with some people
I just knew would know how to live their life clearly based on themselves
people of truth who put fire in you.

Ohh I'm so lucky we get to inspire each other.
Oohhh I'm so glad we got together.
My whole world was falling apart.
