

Tinman Jones, Sunshine

Sunshine...

Your color's so bright
Made a good impression
As a lily garden might
Capture the moment of sunrise
Illuminate my soul into another starry night
You, I'm staring into You

Everything that you say is like Sunshine
Every stroke that you paint is like Sunshine
You can find your hideaway in this heart of mine
Come on light my way, You're like Sunshine

Your love is your art
Finger painted passion is state of the heart
Persistence of memory could scar
Love like a canvas, a chance to restart
You, I'm staring into You

Stolen by a mystery
Living part of history
Take a step of faith
You're my velvet rope security
Oh the beauty of it all
